INSERT TEXT: HOW TO COOK A CORNISH GAME HEN

INT — KITCHEN — EARLY EVENING

An empty pan sits in the middle of the kitchen counter.

CUT TO:

A MAN'S hand turns the dial of the oven to 375 degrees and the preheat light comes on.

CUT TO:

A Cornish Game Hen sits in the pan on the counter top. A man's hand brushes on a final swath of glaze and places a lemon slice on top.

CUT TO:

The ovens preheat light goes off and the man's hand returns lowering the oven door and placing the pan inside the oven.

CUT TO:

From inside the oven the man standing in front of the oven bends down and stares at the hen while it cooks. He blinks and stares. Blinks and stares. A little girl carrying her "stuffed" puppy comes up behind him and looks in the oven with him. They both stare together at the hen and blink. The little girl starts to shove the puppy against the open window.

INSERT TEXT: HOW TO SERVE A CORNISH GAME HEN

INT — DINING ROOM — EARLY EVENING

The little girl sits on one side of the glass dining room table swinging her legs over the chair. The man places a place with a Cornish game hen in front of her and then places another in front of him.

He looks at the puppy propped up in the chair and then at the little girl. The man nods and then readies his fork and knife to cut into the bird. The man's fork enters the bird
